"VALLEY OF MOON" APPLES TO THE FORE

Sonoma Apple Growers Association Has Fine Season and is Doing Big Promotion Work. Vineburg Is Busy Fruit Center.

The Sonoma Valley Apple Growers Association is telling the world that Sonoma Valley is the producer of as fine apples as are grown anywhere in the United States. Their message, which has been sent out and verified by over 20 carloads of apples so far has been made possible by the organization which is destined to be a big factor in Sonoma's future. The organization is backed by a coterie of our most substantial and progressive growers who showed confidence in their organization by putting up a modern packing house, 62X 122 ft. this season at Vineburg station. The new industry has been a thriving one from the outset and for several weeks past the packing house has made Vineburg a busy burg. About 25 employees have been busy weighing in, sorting and packing the exceptionally fine crops of apples which Sonoma orchards have produced this season. Not only has the crop been large, but the quality has been exceptional. Among the biggest producers of the season thus far are Geo. Cassidy, E. J. Clements, R. H. Ling, G. S. Harris, E. Abbott and W. E. Helberg. The shipments so far have been Gravensteins, one of the earliest varieties and therefore a fine price getter. Oregon and Washington have been taking Sonoma Valley apples and Texas and the middle West states in general have been heavy purchasers of "Valley of the Moon" brand fruit.

Speaking of the brand, the association has a very attractive label this year which is upon every box shipped out. It bears the name "Valley of the Moon" Brand and the name of the Sonoma Valley Apple Growers. The label illustrates the orchards of the Valley of the Moon by moonlight.

Texas, the "Lone Star" state seems to have been by far the heaviest buyer of "Valley of the Moon" apples, most of the apples being consigned to either Waco, San Antonio, Ft. Worth Dallas or Houston although some have gone as far East as Chicago.

Prices have been exceptionally fine the top figures varying from $2.60 to $2.75 per box f.o.b Vineburg. The employees have been sharing in these good prices with the growers, one young lady sorter having made as high as $35 per week. The packers who get 4c per box, can make between $25 and $30 per week.

Working conditions at Vineburg are very pleasant and the packing house has been planned with this end in view. It has a fine roomy floor space with each department separate and ventilation and light amply provided for. Girls with cheeks rosier than the apples they handle, seem to enjoy their well paid tasks and are rapidly becoming experts in their various lines. After the fruit has been sorted and packed, it is loaded into the cars on the spur track. Over 59,206 boxes so far have been made from shooks bought by the growers in Petaluma. The purchase of shook has been a great saving to all our fruit men as the association has not only purchased for itself but sells in turn to the farmers.

The eleventh shipment of Valley of the Moon brand apples to San Francisco left Vineburg Wednesday. Local commission men being keen to get broken lots, not consigned to the bigger purchasers.

In one end of the packing house, the Earl Fruit Company has its packers busy shipping out Sonoma pears which are also of fine quality and command as high as $85.00 per ton.

Vineburg is also the scene just now of very interesting observations in the drying of fruit at the new plant of the Gundlach-Bundschu Company. Pears and apples have been very successfully dried and later, grapes will be experimented with. Napa vineyardists were over Wednesday, viewing the dryer with a view to setting up dryers in the Napa Valley. Philip Bill is the superintendent of the dryer and divides his time between there and the Rhine Farm vineyards.

Shipments from Vineburg station to date show, 70 carloads of pears, averaging 18 tons to the car, 6 car loads of plums; 2 car loads peaches and 26 car loads of apples to have been shipped from that section of Sonoma Valley.

Mrs. J. H. Shofner has returned from the East in company with her son, Lt. W. Shofner, who after heroic service in the submarine service with the Navy, suffered a severe illness and was in a hospital for many months. Sonoma friends rejoice with the family in his return home.

Miss Mildred Erickson has been having a fine time in Richmond where she has been entertained by relatives

Mrs. Molly Weyl of San Francisco has been visiting old Sonoma friends.

Fred Schell Jr. has been critically ill with pneumonia and under the care of Dr. Hays.

POSTOFFICE TO BE GROCETERIA

Some of Uncle Sam's Army Supplies To Be Sold Through Sonoma Post-Office Commencing Next Week.

Anything from corned-beef hash for the boarders to rice for the bride may be secured at the Sonoma postoffice next week when some of the surplus of Uncle Sam's army supplies will be sold to the public. While we will not be able to swat the High Cost of Living very hard as a result of these purchases because of the limited quantity allotted Sonoma, we will at least be able to sample army foodstuffs and get an idea what our soldier boys lived on during the war. Bacon to be sold here comes only in 12 lb cans and is sliced, so one must have a big family and plenty of eggs or greens to go with this purchase.

Baked beans are available in one, two and three pound cans, so those who like the ever-ready, quickly warmed dish will find these cheap and handy.. Beans, listed as stringless, and only 9 cents each, alas have a string on nevertheless, as there are only 36 cans to be sold. Corned beef is more plentiful, so you may write your requisition for this up to four at least. If you like corned-beef hash, all you have to do is to poach your own eggs. Postmaster Wagnon will get you the hash.

Cherries, while neither fresh fruit nor in Maraschino, presents a dainty possibility up to 12 cans, so hurry for these. Of green peas, tomatoes, dried beans, flour and rice there are apportionments. Believing that variety is the spice of life, we are provided with but 18 cans of pepper.

Here is the official statement of quantities and prices as announced by Postmaster Wagnon:

"Patrons must make out their requisitions in duplicate. No blanks for requisitions will be supplied. The allotment of the several articles will be distributed in as large a number of applicants as possible. Requisitions will be received between 9 a. m. and 11 a. m., August 25, 1919. All requisitions must be accompanied with cash covering postage and cost of articles as shown by attached price list:

93-12 pound cans bacon, not more than one can to a patron, can, $4.15
168 one pound cans baked beans, 4 cans to a patron, per can, .04; 12 two pound cans baked beans, per can, .06; 264 three pound cans baked beans, per can, .09; 36 cans two pound stringless beans, per can, .09; 240 one pound cans corned beef, per can, .29; 288 two pound cans corned beef, per can, .55; 30 six pound cans corned beef, per can, 1.75; 182 one pound cans roast beef, per can, .29; 216 two pound cans roast beef, per can, .63; 18 six pound cans roast beef, per can, 1.90; 348 two pound cans corn, per can, .09; 144 one pound cans corned beef hash, per can .22; 144 two pound cans corned beef hash, per can, .37; 12 two and one-half pound cans cherries, per can, .21 432 two pound cans peas, per can, .09; 24 ten pound cans tomatoes, per can, .33; 300 pounds dry beans, at 6.49 per 100 pounds; 100 pounds rice, at 6.74 per 100 pounds; 18 one quarter pound cans pepper, per can, .09; 192 pounds flour.

Glen Ellen Will Be Scene of Big Affair Thursday Night Next, Date Of Jack London Memorial Benefit.

In a blaze of glory and with much jazz, the street carnival to be given by the Womans Improvement Club of Glen Ellen for the Jack London Memorial library will open Thursday night at the picturesque grounds of Mrs. Geo. O'Donnell. Illumination will be unique and under the soft glow will be an array of booths and their attractive concessions, while the State Home band will play, and everything be sold from hot-dogs to Persian kittens.

The State Home is to have a booth of fancy work and also a tea booth, where fortunes will be told from the tea leaves. Mrs. Harry Weise and Mrs. Ranken have charge of the hot-dogs, Mrs. Williams the ice cream, Mrs. Panerazi the vaudeville attractions, Mrs. Erickson, roulette, Boyes Springs, games and entertainment, the Sonoma Valley Womans Club, the Country Store, the Glen Ellen school, grab bag, and Mrs. O'Donnell, president of the carnival committee, the dancing.

Fine donations are coming in and will be sold during the carnival. The Glen Ellen ladies are more than pleased with the interest manifested and the aid being given them by Sonoma, Boyes Springs and Eldridge.

LOUIS ANDERSON NOW A RESIDENT OF NAPA

L. Anderson, who conducted a blacksmithing business at Vineburg for several years and has many friends in that section of the valley, has removed to Napa with his family. Mr. Anderson had intended to go into the garage business there but has been quite sick since leaving Vineburg

His talented daughter, Miss Louise, who graduated with honors from the Sonoma High School in June, is to attend business college in Napa.

Mrs. E. E. Steiger suffered a painful injury to her hand this week when a knife with which she was cutting fruit, slipped and inflicted a wound which required several stitches to close.

Mesdames Bush and Walt, sisters of Mrs. E. E. Steiger, who have been on a motor trip to Mendocino county, stopped at Schellville on their way home to Berkeley.

SPINDLERS ARE IN COURT AGAIN

Chas. Spindler Wants To Get Ranch Back From Belle Spindler And Sues For It.

An action was filed Monday by Charles Spindler against his wife, Belle Spindler, asking the Superior Court to set aside a deed to 50 acres of land near El Verano, known as "Carlsheim". It is alleged that the deed was given to the wife as security for a loan of $5,922.50 and that she now refuses to deed the property back to the plaintiff. This is the second action between Mr. and Mrs. Spindler, recently a divorce having been denied to both by Judge Zook, on May 13th of this year. Several efforts have been made to adjust the domestic troubles without going to court, without avail. At the time of the divorce proceedings, Judge Zook refused to adjudicate the question of the property, leaving that matter for a separate action.

The contest over the property will probably be as bitter as former controversies between the couple. Mrs. Spindler claims to have had considerable ready money when she married Spindler and now has little to show for it except the ranch. It is a nice piece of property, planted to seedless grapes and the house is of unique architecture.

Spindler owned the ranch several years before he met and married the widow with whom he has since quarreled and parted.

Mrs. Langhorne and daughter of Alameda have been guests at the Wicker home. Miss Langhorne is a gifted vocalist.

The Dahnkin family are expected to return to Boyes today. The well known theatrical man is quite ill.

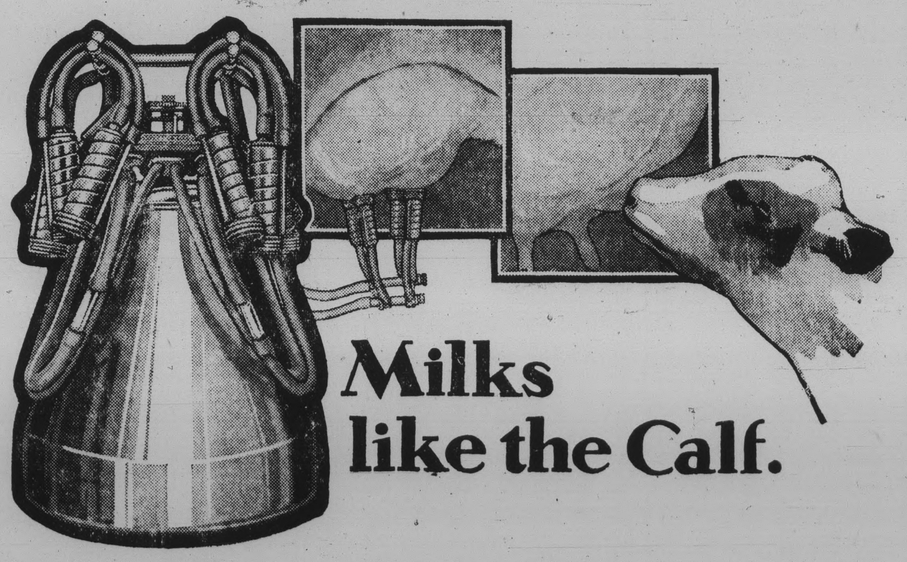
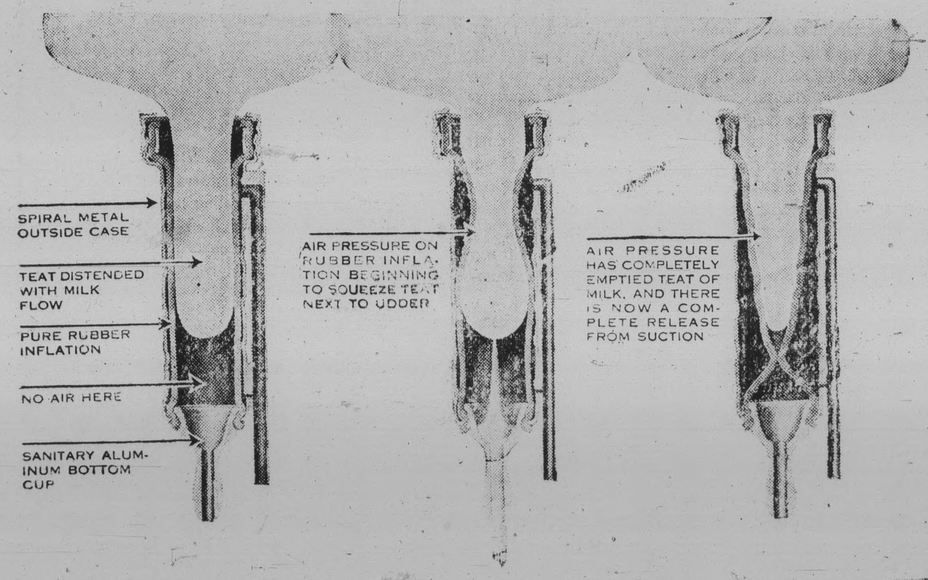
THE PERFECTION MILKER

Milks Nature's Way and It Is Hard To Improve On Nature

Cows Like The Perfection Because It Milks Like Their Own Calves



Milks like the Calf.



SPIRAL METAL OUTSIDE CASE
TEAT DISTENDED WITH MILK FLOW
PURE RUBBER INFLATION
NO AIR HERE
SANITARY ALUMINUM BOTTOM CUP
AIR PRESSURE ON RUBBER INFLATION BEGINNING TO SQUEEZE TEAT NEXT TO UDDER
AIR PRESSURE HAS COMPLETELY EMPTIED TEAT OF MILK, AND THERE IS NOW A COMPLETE RELEASE FROM SUCTION

A MILKER THAT CAN FAITHFULLY REPRODUCE THESE ACTIONS IS MORE THAN A MERE MACHINE, IT IS A REAL MILKER. THE PERFECTION reproduces these actions faithfully; first a gentle suction, scientifically controlled, then the spiral downward squeeze, followed by a complete release. This principle is used on PerfectionMilkers exclusively, and is protected by the manufacturer's patent. The Perfection Milker is therefore safe, because nature's way is safe. When a calf milks a cow, whether the cow is a hard or an easy milker, the calf sucks JUST HARD ENOUGH. The Perfection is the only machine which can be adjusted to suit all conditions, and to suck JUST HARD ENOUGH. The Perfection is mechanically right and is manufactured by the largest and oldest exclusive milking machine factory in the world. Every part is the best that specialists, using the highest grade of materials and machines, can produce. The Perfection is so simple and easy to operate that boys andgirls everywhere are handling them and take enjoyment in the work.

The Perfection draws the milk in Nature's Way.
The Perfection draws the milk with less vacuum.
The Perfection is the simplest in construction.
The Perfection is the most durable.
The Perfection will cost less to keep in repairs.

The Perfection, properly handled, guarantees the user as good and in most cases, better returns than hand milking.
The Perfection gives the farmer better value for his money than he can get in any other milking machine and the price is within the reach of every dairyman.

Over 90 satisfied dairymen using the Perfection Milkers in our vicinity. We would be pleased to send our agent to give you an estimate cost of installation.

Highway Within City Limits Must be Provided

SONOMA IS NOT the only city which realizes that with the coming of state and county highway up to its very doors, that municipal improvement must follow, and town streets be improved according to modern standards Sonoma people are wide awake to the necessity of this important move and the majority of its city council are likewise cognizant of it and what is more are in favor of getting busy on the preliminaries at once.

Fortunately, the city hall bond debt is about cleaned up and it is popular judgment that Sonoma should build new streets by means of a bond issue in the amount necessary to do the work. When traffic is brought into a city through the convenience and attractiveness of modern roads, everyone in the town benefits by the impetus given to the life of the community. Property values all feel the quickening of the better reports which emanate from travelers who have passed through the improved locality and spread broadcast the good news of the new era. So everyone should be willing to share in the cost of greater prosperity, and bonding seems the best way. In the case of streets, there will be the satisfaction of knowing that much of present upkeep for inferior street improvement will be eliminated. If Sonoma saw its way clear to bond for a city hall to the amount of $30,000 many years ago, it would indeed be shortsighted not to proceed to bond now for highways and thus continue the uniform system of modern roads which will put us on the map and keep us there.

Pass the Buck no Farther We of ToDay are to Blame

ON WHAT HE TERMS "Mr. Ford's Own Page" the big maker of little cars has some excellent comments in the last issue of the periodical he publishes, "The Dearborn Independent". His theme is the Food Business problem. Ford points out that we might succeed in breaking the food trust by raising such overwhelming quantities of all kinds of food as shall make manipulation and exploitation impossible. "Perhaps" he says, "we shall witness a revival of the small flour milling business in our communities. It was an evil day when the village flour mill disappeared. Co-operative farming will yet become so developed and perfected that we shall see associations of farmers with their own packing houses in which their own hogs will be turned into ham and bacon, with their own flour mills in which their grain shall be turned into commercial foodstuffs. Why a steer raised in Texas should be brought to Chicago and then served in Boston, is a question that cannot be answered on good business principles so long as there could be raised near Boston, all the steers that city needs. This centralization of food manufacturing industries, entailing as it does, enormous costs for transportation and organization, is one very serious cause of the era of prohibitive prices in which we find ourselves."

Henry seems right to a certain extent, but he takes it for granted that the buying public is a practical lot of hard-headed business men and women. As a matter of fact, the complexity of modern business establishment is the result of clever observation that the public is a fickle, erratic and light-hearted lot and can be fooled like school girls, who rather enjoy the experience of being humbugged. The buyer of today is not satisfied with the homely product of yesterday. The most approved methods and expensive processing must go with the goods they buy.

A panacea seeking writer suggests that we might be better off without the luxurious modern department store, but what shopper will deny that they seek out and enjoy these immense emporiums with army of employees, swift elevators, wonderful showcases, Paris and New York buyers, living models and service of every character. The purchasers every mood and idea is catered to, every thought and whim is anticipated and who will say that we are humbugged, when we prefer to be humbugged rather than humdrum. There is no question but that we could all live cheaper, but as a matter of fact, your modern individual would not be satisfied with the comparatively primitive and simple and old-fashioned products which obtained in a past age when economics was a simpler science than it is today.

The village flour mill would not give us the flaky product of your modern colossal plants nor would there be the zest to buy the un-advertised, unadorned, cheap grist of our grandfathers. Ham "what am" must likewise be advertised to be toothsome and the work of the artist and the color printer is quite as important an aid to digestion as the process of sugar cure. No, Henry Ford might as well say it was a grevious day when the old buck-skin bag was superceded by the checking account and grieve that ox teams and prairie schooners have given way to the call for speed and demand for cars. We are living a different age and are paying for it. If we can get all we get now, and get it cheaper, let us have it by all means but let us acknowledge that we of today are responsible for conditions to which alarmists have suddenly awakened us. We are in the throes of the discovery. Will we profit by the introspection or decide that it is all cheap at the price, considering what we get out of life in the twentieth century.

BEFORE any railroad plan can be worked out, one highly essential fact must be established—namely, whether the soverign power of the United States is vested in Government and in the American people or whether it is vested in the railroad brotherhoods. —New York World.

FINE CONCERT ENJOYED HERE LAST SUNDAY

The band concert given by the talented Oakland boys on the Plaza here last Sunday night was a big musical treat and drew a large crowd. A fine program of popular operatic and classic music was rendered. The boys collected about $29 from the crowd and were most appreciative. They travel in a big motor bus, given to them by the late Mrs. Phoebe Hearst. Concerts were given in other neighboring cities.

HISTORIC DRESS FEATURE OF INTERESTING PROGRAM

At the Womans club last Friday, Mrs. Mary L. Carter presented an interesting and original program. Numbers from her own versatile pen. The music of the march song which she composed for the 1915 Fair was played as an opening piano number by Mrs. C. G. Murphy. A story and poem of cleverness were next read by the authoress and as a finale, Mrs. Carter's parody on "The Old Oaken Bucket" entitled "The Old Fashioned Pocket" was interpreted in costume by Mrs. Hannah Appleton with the song by Mrs. Lulu Emparan. For this number, Mrs. Appleton wore a handsome dress of old brocade which is an heirloom in the Appleton family having been worn by Betsy Greenleaf of Boston, at her presentation at the court of King George, before the Revolution. With powdered hair, rare old lace, antique jewels and other accessories to the costume of this period, Mrs. Appleton would have done justice to the canvas of the most exacting artist. Her acting was exceptionally good and Mrs. Carter was more than pleased with the success of the production. She was much complimented on the afternoon.

BATHING SUIT DISAPPEARS WOMANS ARREST FOLLOWS

The disappearance of many bathing suits this season at Boyes Springs resulted in a little extra vigilance the past two weeks and the discovery that many suits are purloined by bathers. One suit is alleged to have been found in the room of a fair summer boarder at a nearby resort and her arrest followed last Saturday. She gave the name of Benson and was the mother of two children. Although the suit bore the Boyes regulation mark, B. S., the woman first maintained that the suit was her own. In lieu of cash bail, Mrs. Benson put up a ring and some money to guarantee her appearance in court to answer to the charge, Judge Small being disinclined to send her to jail on account of her children.

After hearing the testimony at the preliminary examination, His Honor fined the bather $10.00 and imposed a sentence of 20 days which he suspended. The resort proprietors are determined to put a stop to petty thefts at the baths and will make an example of all suspects.

SUPERVISORS GOOD BOOSTERS FOR SCHELLVILLE HIGHWAY

The Supervisors are very anxious to get the State Highway Commission to fix the survey for the Santa Rosa-Schellville road so that they can get the rights of way without delay and thus provide for an early construction. This is particularly desirable as a portion of the road through the valley is very rough at the present time and work cannot be carried out by the county. Both Supervisors Cunningham and Weise are very much in earnest about the early construction, and they are joined by the other members of the board and the citizenry generally.

All expenses of himself and fellow musicians will be paid to New York and return. Hickman's music was selected after the graphophone people made a search of the United States to discover the best jazz musicians in the country.

Hickman is a composer as well as a pianist, his Rose Room fox trot being now famous. Since leaving Boyes, he returned on several occasions and played for some of the big seasonal events at the theatre. Sonoma valley friends rejoice with him in his latest big success.

CLUB NOTES

The social meeting of the Sonoma Valley Womans Club was called to order with a very encouraging number in attendance. After routine business was completed, an unusual amount of new business appeared. Mrs. C. Murphy in the Civic Section report, asked the club to give its support towards securing a greatly improved road in our mountain cemetery and a movement is under consideration for such.

The question of the Old Mission Bell was brought up by Mrs. Stofen. The Sutro estate now being settled, the time was deemed ripe for again urging the return of the bell to its home in Sonoma. Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Stofen, the original committee, were empowered to renew their efforts in the matter. The club also voted to lend their aid as invited by the Glen Ellen Womans club towards carrying out of a Street Carnival on August 28th. It was also proposed to secure a lecture by Mr. Charles Bowman Hutchins, the famous "Bird man" at an early date and a committee was appointed to make arrangements. The holding of a Harvest Festival for the benefit of the club, in October, was proposed and enthusiastically received and a special meeting was ordered to decide upon the question.

At the close of business, Mrs. Mary Carter took charge of the program, which consisted of original music, readings, poems and an illustrated song. All the numbers were greatly enjoyed. A delicious cake was donated by Mrs. Julius Poppe and sold per slice, yielding the sum of $3.15 to swell the Flag fund. The social cup of tea, served by the hostess, Mrs. Dora Stofen, and an hour's chat, closed a most enjoyable afternoon.

GREAT COUNCIL TO MEET IN SONOMA COUNTY IN 1920

Santa Rosa gets the next great council of the Improved Order of Red men and the great council of the Degree of Pocahontas in 1920, said Great Chief James W. Ramage upon his return from San Jose, where the sessions of the Redmen and Pocahontas have been in progress this week.

This is very good news that Santa Rosa has been chosen as the convention city. It will bring hundreds of the best men and women of the State here for the convention and it will mean a nice boost for the city and county.

SONOMA CLUB WOMAN HAS FINE OUTING WITH SIERRA CLUB

Mrs. Carrie Burlingame, who made the trip to the Tuolumne Meadows with the Sierra Club and was one of the party of 125 to explore that winderful section of the Yosemite, hiked altogether a distance of 225 miles during her months trip.

The Sierra Club established its main camp in the Meadows and from there parties were organized to make excursions into adjacent territory. Coming into the Meadows over a trail direct from the village, it was a hike of about 20 miles, whereas the trip over the road by motor is approximately 70 miles. From the Meadows Mrs. Burlingame joined a party of the club on a 6 day jaunt to the Devils Post Pile, Rainbow Falls and other noted places. She hiked 50 miles to make this trip. At times the elevation was 10,000 feet where the campers slept out under the stars and frequently frost covered their sleeping tents in the mornings.

Mrs. Burlingame speaks highly of the congenial company she met during this fine outing. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Grunsky and daughter and Miss Hazel Roberts were among those in the party. Senor DeGrassi of Berkeley gave violin numbers every evening around the camp fire where the bandana decked club members gathered for recreation and rest. Prof. Mathews of the U. S. Geological Survey also lectured as did other notables.

The Sierra Club takes along Chinese cooks and excellent meals are provided for the members on these annual excursions.

In September there will be a reunion of the club hikers who made the Yosemite trip at Muir Woods. Mrs. Burlingame hopes to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Peterson, the well known musicians and former residents of Sonoma, were up from San Francisco with their friends, the Baleros, and spent several days visiting at the Laurenzi home.

Chas. Diestel, the Beau Brummel of the Detective Force of San Francisco has been sojourning at Boyes Springs. Charley says no matter how crooked a man is, if he comes to Boyes, he will be straight. SONOMA OFFICERS INITIATE AT MILL VALLEY CHAPTER

The full complement of officers of Valley of the Moon Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was invited to Mill Valley Thursday night to initiate the candidates of that chapter. The Mill Valley folks gave Sonoma's representatives a royal time, the lodge serving a fine dinner before the meeting to more than 20 visitors from here.

The Sonoma officers exemplified the the work of the Order perfectly and Worthy Matron Burmester, was exceedingly proud of her co-workers.

The Chas. Potter, Landgrebe, Barmester and Soley cars conveyed the local members to the picturesque Marin county suburb for the event.

CHANGE IN GRADE ON STAGE GULCH ROAD

Stage Gulch, that part of the Petaluma-Sonoma road which has been a worry and source of trouble to traffic ever since the old road had its beginning, is to be eliminated when the projected county highway between the two points is built.

County Engineer Aldrich has a crew of men now engaged in throwing out a fly line survey for new construction, and plans call for a cutitng down of the excessive grades and curves through the gorges in that section.

The present grade through Stage Gulch is approximately 10 per cent and Mr. Aldrich proposes to cut the grade to 6 per cent at the steepest by going around Stage Gulch and routing the highway through other passes.
